	address travellers and as national policy does, we should ensure the NAG shows local policy. IE Travellers proposals should be accommodated within boundaries. Also retail development policy does not take into account any effect that proposed development will have on already established shops & services. Eileen has a copy of previously suggested phrasing detailing our preferred wording regarding travellers and will arrange for it to be delivered to Janet. Janet will address the NAG on behalf of the HPC. Freida will pass on Fred Parsons' email to Janet	EC FB JC
7	The Neighbourhood Plan Janet and Freida attended the Neighbourhood Action Group. They expressed concerns that good ideas haven't been written as a firm policy, and decisions are based on policies. We need to be clear in what we propose to accept or reject so that it is our say not RBWM's say. Things could be made more specific. Concerns that this does not
